FOREVER 21

INTRODUCTION

FOREVER 21

Forever 21 is a fast-fashion brand that offers trendy and affordable clothing, accessories, and lifestyle items. It is well known for its accessible pricing, wide variety of styles, and constantly updated collections that appeal to fashion-forward shoppers looking for the latest trends.

FASHION

Why does Forever 21 need a revival ?

Irrelevance

Forever 21 has struggled to stay relevant in a fast-changing fashion world. Newer brands and online competitors have captured the attention of young shoppers, leaving Forever 21 behind. The styles, marketing, and overall brand image no longer match what trend-focused consumers are looking for today, making a revamp essential to reconnect with modern audiences.

Decline

The brand's financial decline, including bankruptcies in 2019 and 2025 — shows that it has lost a significant portion of its customer base. Sales dropped, store traffic decreased, and the brand's influence faded. A revamp is necessary to revive interest, rebuild trust, and bring customers back both in-store and online.

Reputation

Forever 21's reputation has suffered due to concerns about quality, outdated styles, and sustainability issues. Many shoppers view the brand as behind the times or not environmentally responsible. Improving the brand's image through updated designs, better communication, and more transparent practices will help rebuild consumer confidence and attract new shoppers.

Problem - Insight - Idea

Problem :

Forever 21 is no longer fashionable and went out of style too quickly

-Customers frustrated with cheap product quality

-Late to adapt to social media and an online presence

Insight:

"Young shoppers want to be fashionable and feel unique, but they don't want to spend much"

"Customers are willing to compromise a bit on quality for trendy items but not too much"

Idea:

Launch of a limited monthly capsule collection so customers can become trendy

-Unique pieces at affordable prices

-Highlight quality and sustainability in certain products to improve the perception of the brand

Creative Strategy

Communication Objective: We want to rebrand Forever 21's image by making it younger, more modern, and more sustainable.

- Restore the interest of young people, especially those of Gen Z.
- Demonstrate that the brand is affordable, fashionable, and making a successful comeback
- Versatile clothing— for work, school, or going out
- Staple, customizable pieces

Measured by the number of mentions of the #Forever You (goal of 50,000 mentions).
