PALMQUIST LAW PROFESSOR NAMED CHAIR OF ABA'S ACCREDITATION COMMITTEE

HOSEA, Wis. - Nov. 7, 2025 - Michael J. Henry, law professor at Palmquist University School of Law, is named chair of the American Bar Association's Accreditation Committee.

Henry has been on the committee for the past six years and served as vice chair last year. "I'm deeply honored and will serve to the best of my ability," said Henry. In his one-year term, Henry will preside over committee meetings in July during the ABA's annual meeting in New York.

The Accreditation Committee oversees accreditation of U.S.-based law schools that request ABA accreditation. More than 40 states, including Wisconsin, require graduation from an accredited law school as a condition for practicing law in the state. The committee consists of 19 other members who are also legal educators.

Edward Mieler, dean of the Palmquist School of Law, said, "Professor Henry indubitably has earned this meritorious distinction among other human beings. The ABA clearly has chosen the best person for the job."

Henry earned his bachelor's degree in English from Indiana University and his law degree from the University of Michigan. He joined the Palmquist Law faculty in 1999 and served as university general counsel from 2003 to 2008. He additionally served as dean of the School of Law from 2011 to 2015.
